The first film tells the story of Laura Biel, a young woman from Warsaw who falls in love with Don Massimo Torricelli, a domineering Sicilian man who imprisons and forces her to fall in love with him over a period of 365 days. The first installment of the film franchise ends on a cliffhanger that puts Laura and Massimo's position in jeopardy.

Without giving too much away, the plot of the sequel follows the second novel. A new gangster by the name of Marcelo "Nacho" Matos is introduced, and he pursues Laura who falls prey to him as the drama grows. The official Netflix synopsis reads:

“Laura and Massimo are back and stronger than ever. However, Massimo’s family ties and a mysterious man bidding for Laura’s heart complicate the lovers’ lives.”

Massimo will also have to confront his twin brother Adriano in the sequel, who has neither any connections to the criminal underworld nor any ties to him.
